

Notion Shortcuts

	on either side of your text to bold .
*	on either side of your text to italicize
`	on either side of your text to create inline code
~	on either side of your text to ~~strikethrough~~
*,-,+	followed by space to create a bulleted list
[]	to create a to-do checkbox
1.	followed by space to create a numbered list
#	followed by space to create an H1 heading
##	followed by space to create an H2 sub-heading
###	followed by space to create an H3 sub-heading
>	followed by space to create a toggle list
"	followed by space to create a quote block enter	to insert a line of text shift + enter	to create a line break within a block of text cmd/ctrl + shift + m	to create a comment

---	to create a divider
cmd/ctrl + b	bold text cmd/ctrl + i	to italicize text cmd/ctrl + shift + s	for ~~strikethrough~~ cmd/ctrl + k	to add a link. You can also paste a URL over selected text to turn it into a link using cmd/ctrl+v
cmd/ctrl + e	for inline code
tab	to indent
shift + tab	to un-indent
/turn	at the beginning or end of a block to turn it into a different type of block
/color	at the beginning or end of any text block to change its color or highlight color cmd/ctrl + option/shift + 0	to create text cmd/ctrl + option/shift + 1	to create an H1 heading
cmd/ctrl + option/shift + 2	to create an H2 heading
cmd/ctrl + option/shift + 3	to create an H3 heading
cmd/ctrl + option/shift + 4	to create a to-do checkbox cmd/ctrl + option/shift + 5	to create a bulleted list cmd/ctrl + option/shift + 6	to create a numbered list

cmd/ctrl + option/shift + 7	to create a toggle list cmd/ctrl + option/shift + 8	to create a code block cmd/ctrl + option/shift + 9	to create a new page, or turn whatever you have on a line into a page cmd/ctrl + +	to zoom in cmd/ctrl + -	to zoom out

Edit & move blocks

esc	to select the block you're currently in. Or to clear selected blocks cmd/ctrl + a	once to select the block your cursor is in space	to open a selected image in full-screen. Or to exit full-screen arrow keys	to select a different block shift + click	to select another block and all blocks in between backspace or delete	to delete selected blocks cmd/ctrl + d	to duplicate the blocks you've selected enter	to edit any text inside a selected block (or open a page inside a page) cmd/ctrl + /	to edit or change one or more selected blocks cmd/ctrl + shift + arrow keys	to move a selected block around cmd/ctrl + option/alt + t	to expand or close all toggles in a toggle list cmd/ctrl + shift + h	to apply the last text or highlight color you used cmd/ctrl + enter	to modify the current block you're in

Mention a person	Type @ and another workspace member's name to get their attention on something
Mention a page	Type @ and the name of another page in your workspace to create a link to it
Mention a date	Type @ and a date in any format
Add a reminder	Type @remind followed by a date in any formatf86fac388cc7aeaae)
esc	to dismiss the @-command menu if you simply want to type @

Slash commands (Basic)

/text	creates a new text block
/page	creates a new page
/bullet	creates a bulleted list
/num	creates a numbered list
/todo	creates a to-do list with checkboxes
/toggle	creates a toggle list
/div	creates a light gray divider
/quote	creates a quote block of larger text
/h1	creates a large heading
/h2	creates a medium-sized heading
/h3	creates a small heading
/link	creates a link to another page in your workspace
esc	clears the / menu

Slash commands (Database)
/table-inline	creates a database table inside a current page
/board-inline	creates a Kanban board inside a current page
/calendar-inline	creates a calendar inside a current page /list-inline	creates a list-style database inside a current page
/gallery-inline	creates a gallery inside a current page
/linked	creates a linked database Slash commands (Advanced)
/comment	lets you create a comment on any block
/button or /template	gives you a template button that duplicates any combination of blocks you define
/bread	inserts a breadcrumb menu that shows where your current page is in your workspace
/math	lets you write mathematical equations and symbols using TeX

Slash commands (Media)
/image	will bring up the option to upload or embed an image, or add one from Unsplash
/pdf	lets you paste in a URL to any PDF so it will display in-line on your page
/book	lets you paste in a URL to any website to create a web bookmark
/video	lets you upload a video file or embed a video from YouTube, Vimeo, etc
/audio	lets you upload an audio file or embed a recording from SoundCloud, Spotify, etc
/code	creates a code block where you can write and copy any snippet of code
/file	lets you upload any file from your computer or create an embed
/embed	lets you add any one of the 500+ embeds that work with Notion